

COULD THIS READING BE WRONG?

When an arterial pressure reading appears inconsistent with the patients overall condition...

Check the Waveform
(Quality, Damping or Resonance)

Check the System Integrity
(Tubing/Connections)

Check the Transducer Levelling

Check the Zeroing Status

Small errors in readings could influence whether clinicians increase vasopressor support, administer fluids or escalate care.